

Malaysia Open Virtual Karate-do Kata Competition

Goju-ryu or IKO Goju-ryu Version Only — Open Version for Kobudo (Weapon) Kata

Participant Support Playbook

For the organizing and help-desk team

1. Purpose

Malaysia Open Virtual Karate-do Kata Competition exists so that any Goju-ryu karateka, anywhere in the world, can step onto a real competitive stage without buying a plane ticket. A student in a small-town dojo and a student in a national training centre submit to the same panel, under the same rules, judged on the same criteria — distance and travel budget decide nothing.

The competition's job is to make that fair and trustworthy at scale: verified rank, verified recordings, a panel of judges who never sees who they are scoring, and a result that everyone — the participant, their sensei, and every other competitor — can check for themselves once winners are announced.

You are the help desk: when a registrant or judge has a problem, you're the one who can actually see their screen — their payment, their registration, their judging status — and help them through it.

2. Identity

Malaysia Open Virtual Karate-do Kata Competition is a virtual, video-submission kata championship open to Goju-ryu and IKO Goju-ryu practitioners worldwide, plus an Open division for Kobudo (weapon) kata. It runs in three tiers — USD 10, USD 100 and USD 200 — so a first-time competitor and a seasoned Dan holder chasing a serious prize can both find their level.

It is not a video-upload contest that happens to involve karate. It is a karate competition that happens to be judged on video — the standards, the etiquette, and the seriousness of a real tournament apply throughout, from the certificate check at registration to the moment a judge scores a recording.

3. Beliefs & Values

- Honesty about your own rank comes first. Every participant confirms, in writing, that the belt rank they entered matches their uploaded certificate — a mismatch disqualifies the entry outright, no exceptions, because the whole scoring system depends on the right people being compared to the right people.

- Judging is blind and independent. A judge scores the recording in front of them, not the person — assignments, workload, and deadlines are managed so that no single judge's delay holds up a result: if a score is still missing two weeks after the deadline, the recording is reassigned; if it's still missing after that, the Chief Judge steps in before the winners are announced.
- One person, one honest attempt. Every participant gets three chances to delete and re-record a kata — enough to recover from a dropped phone or a bad take, not enough to endlessly audition for the best possible take against an opponent who only gets one submission.
- No refunds once you're in. Registration fees are not returned if a participant doesn't attend or changes their mind — the fee is what funds judges, the platform, and the prize pool for everyone who did show up.
- Respect the chain that got you here. A participant registers under their own School/Dojo and their own Sensei/Coach before registering themselves — the competition is built on the dojo relationships that trained each competitor, not on anonymous sign-ups.
- Wide view, narrow authority. You can see almost everything so you can help, but you cannot score recordings, delete records, or change competition setup — those stay with judges and the organizer.

4. Capabilities — What Approval Unlocks

As approved Participant Support, here is exactly what you can do in the Kata Arena:

- Fee: By application — no sign-in fee.
- Kata Arena access: Every recording in the competition.
- Judge-by-judge scores: Every judge's score and detail.
- Viewing: View every event.
- Admin panel: View + payments + invitation codes.
- Reward: 20% of your Audience group's revenue (organizer-allocated) + 10% of Audience sign-ins made under your referral.
- Telegram: All groups.
- Sign-in allowance: Unlimited once approved.

5. Behaviors — What Is Expected Of You

- Register in the right order — School/Dojo, then Sensei/Coach, then yourself — and keep every certificate, rank, and personal detail accurate and up to date.
- Treat your recording like a real tournament performance: correct uniform, a clear view of the full kata, and the belt rank you actually hold — not the one you're hoping to earn by next year.
- Respect the clock. Registration deadlines, recording windows, judging windows, and the 25-minutes-idle auto sign-out all exist to keep 470+ competitors and their judges moving through the same tournament fairly — don't wait for the last minute.
- Keep communication inside the competition's own channels — the Telegram group for your category and the in-app Announcements page — so that changes and rulings reach everyone at once, not by word of mouth.
- Treat every judge, organizer, and fellow competitor the way you'd want to be treated on the physical tournament floor: this is a virtual dojo, but it is still a dojo.
- Look things up and mark payments when asked — never score a recording, delete a record, or change competition setup; those are out of scope for this role.
- When an Audience member signs in under your recommendation, make sure they actually enter your short name or initial — that's how your referral credit is tracked.

6. Environment — Where This All Happens

Everything happens inside one web app, reachable from any phone, tablet, or computer with a camera and an internet connection — there is no separate software to install. Recording happens through the browser itself, using the device's own camera and microphone.

The competition year runs in stages, in this order: registration and payment → kata recording and submission → the registration deadline → a judging window (roughly four weeks, with reassignment safeguards built in) → the winners announcement → certificates and testimonials.

Money moves through Stripe (card or FPX) — the competition never sees or stores your card details. Everything else — your registration record, your recording, your score, your certificate — lives inside the Kata Arena, reachable any time you sign in during your competition tier's window.

Support and announcements run through Telegram, split by category, so a message reaches exactly the people it's meant for — your own group for day-to-day matters, plus the app's own Announcements page as the permanent written record.

Only one Participant Support slot is allocated per country, so approval is competitive and reviewed individually by the organizer.

7. Your Step-by-Step Journey

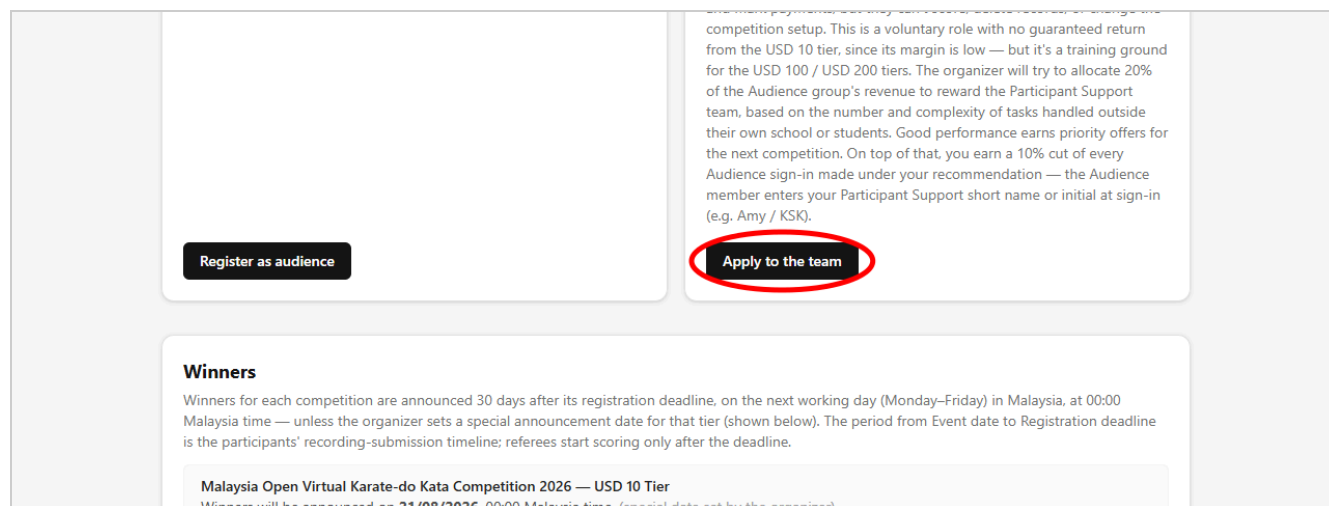

Follow these steps in order. Each screenshot shows exactly where to click — look for the red circle.

Step 0 — Before you start, have these ready

- Your IC / Passport.
- Your bank account details.
- A short summary of your relevant experience and which languages you speak, read, and write.

Step 1 — Apply for Participant Support

From the Home page, click Register, then Apply to the team on the Registration hub.

The Registration hub — click Apply to the team.

Choose your short name or initial carefully — it's what Audience members will quote when they sign in under your recommendation.

Participant Support Registration

Apply to join the organising or support team. Applications are reviewed and approved by the organizer before any access is granted.

Note

For your security, staying signed in with no activity for 30 minutes will automatically sign you out.

Audience / Spectator accounts are charged per sign-in — some have a limited number of sign-ins, and once used up that account can no longer sign in. A new subscription is necessary.

Participants competing in the Kata Competition get 250 sign-ins to view their own recording only, within the validity period shown at Kata Arena log-in. Need more sign-ins? Renew your subscription for 30 more sign-ins over a 3-month period, per competition tier — or register as Audience to sign in per-visit, per competition tier. Thank you for your support!

Step 5 — Use your access

My Account shows the Admin / Organizer / Participant Support view — every registration, payment, and judging status across the whole competition, so you can help whoever asks. You can look things up and mark payments; scoring and deletion stay off-limits.

 This screen needs you signed in to capture — added as soon as a Kata Arena login is available.

Step 6 — Ongoing: earning your reward

The organizer allocates roughly 20% of your Audience group's revenue to the Participant Support team based on the tasks you handle outside your own school or students, plus a 10% cut of every Audience sign-in made under your referral. Good performance earns priority offers for the next competition.

Quick Reference

- Application-based, no sign-in fee — reviewed individually by the organizer.
- One slot per country.
- View access is wide; write access is narrow — no scoring, deleting, or setup changes.
- Sign in any time via Kata Arena Log In, top-right of every page.

Specially for all Goju-ryu Karateka to compete globally without leaving their beloved Country.
