

Malaysia Open Virtual Karate-do Kata Competition

Goju-ryu or IKO Goju-ryu Version Only — Open Version for Kobudo (Weapon) Kata

School / Dojo Playbook

For every school and dojo registering students

1. Purpose

Malaysia Open Virtual Karate-do Kata Competition exists so that any Goju-ryu karateka, anywhere in the world, can step onto a real competitive stage without buying a plane ticket. A student in a small-town dojo and a student in a national training centre submit to the same panel, under the same rules, judged on the same criteria — distance and travel budget decide nothing.

The competition's job is to make that fair and trustworthy at scale: verified rank, verified recordings, a panel of judges who never sees who they are scoring, and a result that everyone — the participant, their sensei, and every other competitor — can check for themselves once winners are announced.

Your dojo is the anchor every one of your students registers under — the competition is built on real dojo relationships, not anonymous sign-ups.

2. Identity

Malaysia Open Virtual Karate-do Kata Competition is a virtual, video-submission kata championship open to Goju-ryu and IKO Goju-ryu practitioners worldwide, plus an Open division for Kobudo (weapon) kata. It runs in three tiers — USD 10, USD 100 and USD 200 — so a first-time competitor and a seasoned Dan holder chasing a serious prize can both find their level.

It is not a video-upload contest that happens to involve karate. It is a karate competition that happens to be judged on video — the standards, the etiquette, and the seriousness of a real tournament apply throughout, from the certificate check at registration to the moment a judge scores a recording.

3. Beliefs & Values

- Honesty about your own rank comes first. Every participant confirms, in writing, that the belt rank they entered matches their uploaded certificate — a mismatch disqualifies the entry outright, no exceptions, because the whole scoring system depends on the right people being compared to the right people.

- Judging is blind and independent. A judge scores the recording in front of them, not the person — assignments, workload, and deadlines are managed so that no single judge's delay holds up a result: if a score is still missing two weeks after the deadline, the recording is reassigned; if it's still missing after that, the Chief Judge steps in before the winners are announced.
- One person, one honest attempt. Every participant gets three chances to delete and re-record a kata — enough to recover from a dropped phone or a bad take, not enough to endlessly audition for the best possible take against an opponent who only gets one submission.
- No refunds once you're in. Registration fees are not returned if a participant doesn't attend or changes their mind — the fee is what funds judges, the platform, and the prize pool for everyone who did show up.
- Respect the chain that got you here. A participant registers under their own School/Dojo and their own Sensei/Coach before registering themselves — the competition is built on the dojo relationships that trained each competitor, not on anonymous sign-ups.

4. Capabilities — What Your Registration Unlocks

As a registered School / Dojo, here is exactly what you can do in the Kata Arena:

- Fee: One-time tier fee (USD 10 / 100 / 200).
- Kata Arena access: Your own school's students only — their tier & kata events (all recordings once Winners are announced).
- Judge-by-judge scores: Round status + total only.
- Viewing: View your own students' events only (all events once Winners are announced).
- Commission: 10% of your students' fees once you have 10+ participants.
- Telegram: Your School's Telegram group.
- Sign-in allowance: Unlimited sign-ins for your competition tier once your fee is paid (your own school's recordings only).

5. Behaviors — What Is Expected Of You

- Register in the right order — School/Dojo, then Sensei/Coach, then yourself — and keep every certificate, rank, and personal detail accurate and up to date.

- Treat your recording like a real tournament performance: correct uniform, a clear view of the full kata, and the belt rank you actually hold — not the one you're hoping to earn by next year.
- Respect the clock. Registration deadlines, recording windows, judging windows, and the 25-minutes-idle auto sign-out all exist to keep 470+ competitors and their judges moving through the same tournament fairly — don't wait for the last minute.
- Keep communication inside the competition's own channels — the Telegram group for your category and the in-app Announcements page — so that changes and rulings reach everyone at once, not by word of mouth.
- Treat every judge, organizer, and fellow competitor the way you'd want to be treated on the physical tournament floor: this is a virtual dojo, but it is still a dojo.
- Keep your Person-in-Charge / Chief Instructor details current — participants and senseis select your dojo by name during their own registration.
- Make sure every student you expect to compete actually registers under your dojo's name, so your commission share is calculated correctly.

6. Environment — Where This All Happens

Everything happens inside one web app, reachable from any phone, tablet, or computer with a camera and an internet connection — there is no separate software to install. Recording happens through the browser itself, using the device's own camera and microphone.

The competition year runs in stages, in this order: registration and payment → kata recording and submission → the registration deadline → a judging window (roughly four weeks, with reassignment safeguards built in) → the winners announcement → certificates and testimonials.

Money moves through Stripe (card or FPX) — the competition never sees or stores your card details. Everything else — your registration record, your recording, your score, your certificate — lives inside the Kata Arena, reachable any time you sign in during your competition tier's window.

Support and announcements run through Telegram, split by category, so a message reaches exactly the people it's meant for — your own group for day-to-day matters, plus the app's own Announcements page as the permanent written record.

7. Your Step-by-Step Journey

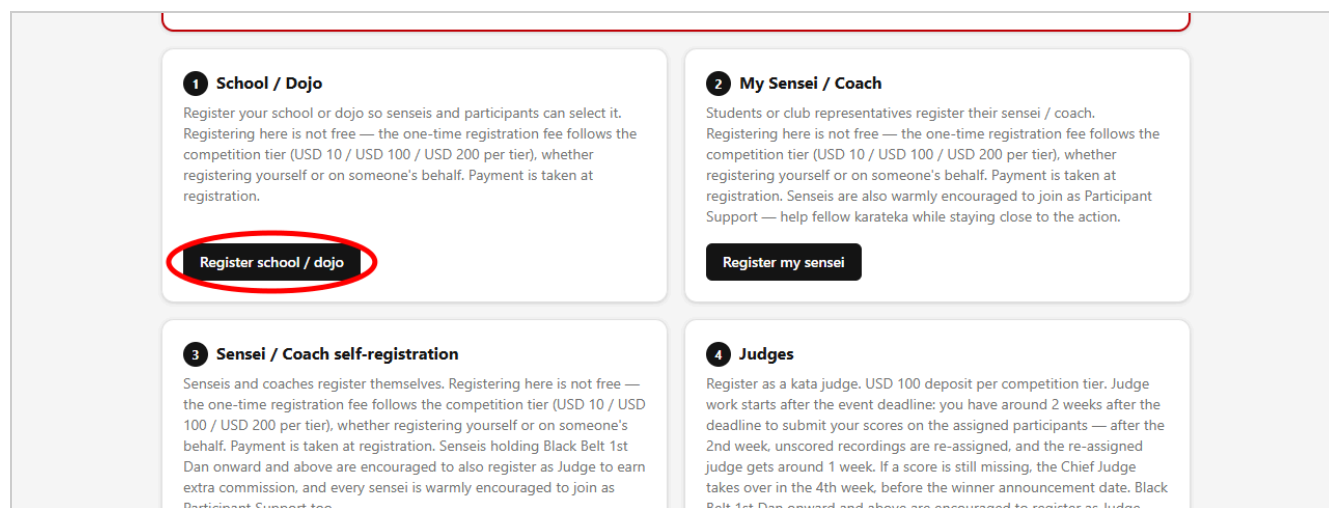

Follow these steps in order. Each screenshot shows exactly where to click — look for the red circle.

Step 0 — Before you start, have these ready

- Your dojo's name and address.
- Your Person in Charge / Chief Instructor's details, including IC / Passport number.
- Your bank account details for commission payout.

Step 1 — Register your School / Dojo

From the Home page, click Register, then Register school / dojo on the Registration hub.

The Registration hub — click Register school / dojo.

Choose your competition tier — this is a one-time registration fee, separate from your students' own fees. Then name your dojo and pick which kata competition tier(s) your students will compete in.

Registering here is not free — the one-time registration fee follows the competition tier you register under: USD 10 / USD 100 / USD 200 per tier, whether the school registers itself or someone registers on its behalf. The paid fee unlocks unlimited sign-in to watch your own students' kata recordings and judges scores — and if you have 10 or more participants' category events, you qualify for a 10% share of their registration fees.

Step 5 — Watch your students' progress

My Account shows every one of your registered students' kata events and, once Winners are announced, every one of their recordings and results — restricted to your own dojo's students only.

 This screen needs you signed in to capture — added as soon as a Kata Arena login is available.

Step 6 — Ongoing: commission and communication

Once your dojo has 10 or more registered participant entries, you qualify for a 10% share of their registration fees. Stay in your dojo's Telegram group for updates, and encourage every student and their sensei to register in the right order — School, then Sensei, then the student themselves.

Quick Reference

- Registration fee is one-time, per competition tier — separate from your students' own fees.
- 10% commission once you reach 10+ registered participants.
- Your dojo must be registered before any of your students or senseis can select it.
- Sign in any time via Kata Arena Log In, top-right of every page.
